Week 14 - 36 Weeks to Go

The Chronicles were written to those who were rebuilding Jerusalem following the Babylonian captivity. The history helped reestablish continuity with the past. It depicts the faithfulness and promises of God to His people, the power of the Word of God and the central role of worship in the lives of God's people. The people are reminded of their heritage, and that God remains with them. In turn, they must remain faithful to God. The positive aspects of David's reign remind us of the importance of doing things God's way and in God's timing. David's choice to follow God's plan brings blessings to Israel. He united the tribes and delivered Israel from enemies.

Week 14 - 36 Weeks to Go

What did I learn about God?

- Do you think God's will has anything to do with national elections or national prosperity, as was so obvious in David's day?
- In PS 19, who speaks in verses 1-4? What do "they" say? Is the truth about God in nature obvious to everyone? Why don't some people "hear" it? What does the revelation through Scripture do for us that the revelation in creation does not (v11)?
- What picture of God is drawn in PS 50:1-6? Whom is God addressing and judging? What is God's message to the religious in PS 50:7-15? Is it wrong to offer sacrifices as decreed in the Law? What does God want of His people (PS 50:22-23)?
- What kind of God would you prefer: one who is strong or loving? In PS 62:11-12, what two things has David heard about God? How does this impact your thoughts about God?

What did I learn about human nature?

- In 1 CH 11, what managerial and motivational techniques does David use to reach his impossible goal?
- 1 CH is filled with war stories. Why is it important for a nation to remember the battles it has been through? Where do we find memorials to our "mighty men" today?
- 1 CH 15-16, we get some insight into how David worshipped. What would a worship service led by David be like today? What sights and sounds would surprise us? How would this type of service be received?
- What is the source of blessedness or happiness in PS 32? What has David realized about God in versus 6-7? What picture would you use to describe forfeiting God's blessing by covering up your own sin?

What did I learn about my life/relationship with God?

- In 1 CH 12:23-40, huge numbers spent 3 days being joyful over David's coronation. When have you given joy three days of your time? Why do we often feel guilty about such time-consuming pleasure?
- In 1 CH 13:12, David was afraid of God. Do you treat God with more reverential awe or more familiarity? Why?
- Do you tend to forget about the past and live for now? Or do you tend to relive and reflect on the past? Why does the chronicler want Israel to remember the past?
- What storm blows through your life now (or in the past)? Are you responding like the people in PS 29, giving glory to God for ruling over the storm? Or are you like nature – in uproar? Would you find peace by recognizing the Lord of the storm? Why or why not?

Insights about the time and/or customs?

- Why bring the Ark of the Covenant to Jerusalem? Could having an exclusive house of worship in the capital serve any political purpose for David?
- Why would the author retell a story that's already been told elsewhere? Is there some benefit to seeing an old story with new eyes? Why does the book mainly focus on the Southern Kingdom of Judah and barely mention the Northern Kingdom of Israel?
