Week 17 - 33 Weeks to Go

Israel prepares for and is organized to build the temple, which will be built by David's successor, Solomon. The conquest of the land begun in Joshua's time and completed under David was a divine, not a human matter. The land was God's and His people were His tenants. Only when God Himself brought the land into subjection would He authorize construction of a temple. The temple symbolizes God's presence among His people and reminds them of their high calling. David's prayer, as his life ends, reminds us that life is transitory, and we must remember the care and blessing of a sovereign God in our lives to find meaning.

1 CH 22-29; PS 2, 15, 20, 21, 24, 30, 37, 42-49, 72, 84, 85, 87, 93-95, 97-99, 101, 110, 144

Week 17 - 33 Weeks to Go

What did I learn about God?

- PS 30:9 suggests that God has given man has one primary task on earth. What is it? How do we fulfill it?
- PS 15 describes who can approach the Lord in the temple and live on God's holy hill. What are the positive and negative characteristics of a faithful follower? Why isn't God's dwelling available to everyone on an equal basis? How are PS 15 and PS 24 related?
- God is "King over all the earth" (PS 47). Is this true when so many ignore and disobey Him?
- PS 94 deals with evil and injustice. Why doesn't God just end injustice? Is it our job to deal with injustice or should we wait for God to intervene and "set the record straight"? What happens to us when we are amid adversity and evil – do we turn toward or away from God?

What did I learn about human nature?

- Psalm 37 tells us to wait patiently for the Lord in dealing with evil. What do people really want to see happen to those who do evil and enjoy momentary success? How does their success and our reaction to it relate to how we feel about God?
- In 1 CH 23, how hard is it for David to turn over power? How does this related to when you have observed transitions of power in your own life? David delegated extensively at this stage of his career. What are the modern day equivalents for the offices appointed? Could your town use four times as many pastors as police?
- In 1 CH 29, in David's prayer, what is David's view of how a nation prospers? Of who leads a nation? What seems to be his formula for successful leadership of the nation? How do the people of Israel respond? What aspects of the prayer are useful to Christians today? Why?
- Is the message in PS 49 for the rich alone? In what things do the people in PS 49 trust (v 6, 11)? What reality do they not see? How is this world view expressed today? What reasons does the psalmist give for not fearing in the days of adversity?

What did I learn about my life/relationship with God?

- Throughout the Psalms, David praises God in a way that reflects his own personal experience with God. What "praises" do you regularly sing about God that fit your own personal experience? When do you typically sing the praises of the Lord?
- How can PS 46:2-3 and 5-6 apply to a crisis in your own life? How do you respond to life's crises? What difference does it make to you to know God is Lord over all the chaotic events of your life? How is He a fortress to you in times of trouble?
- PS 48:13 expresses the importance of relating the glory of God to the next generation. Who was significant in passing God's love on to you? How can you pass God's love on? What role might "ramparts and citadels" help in passing on the message?
- PS 85 talks about "God's glory dwelling in our land". What does it mean to have God's glory dwell in your land (or life)? What is meant by "good" in PS 85:12?

Insights about the time and/or customs?

- In PS 87, the psalmist lists several nations (Rahab (Egypt), Babylon, Philistia, Tyre (Phoenicia), and Ethiopia (Cush). All the nations come from God's sovereignty, but Israel was His special people. How inclusive or exclusive do you think God's kingdom is? Will anyone be left out? What did the Hebrews think?
